CHICK FEWSTER IS DOING FINE

Yankee Player's Injured Speech Has Returned.

Latest reports to Harry Sparrow business manager of the Yankees, of the progress of Chick Fewster, whose skull was fractured by a pitched ball in Jacksonville, are that he is doing fine He has made steady improvement since the operation in Baltimore to relieve blood clot and pressure. His speech has returned, he is alert mentally and his nerve seems to be unaffected, for he as eager to get back into the game. He is concerned chiefly about baseball and the Yanks, and when he can rejoin them and return to the fray. He is still in the hospital, but moving about in a chair.

Miller Huggins and the Yankees came over from Philadelphia yesterday afternoon. Huggins declared the report that he was trying to get Zimmerman from the Giants was one of those "absolutely nothing to it" yarns. He said also that Frank Baker came up to see him in Philadelphia and reiterated with greater emphasis that he would not play ball again. He has his children to look efter, he told Huggins, and a return to Miller Huggins and the Yankees came after, he told Huggins, and a return to the diamond was not to be thought of.

Miss Rosamond Sherwood, a promising young Long Island player, also joined the party, but as her entry was not sent in with those of the other three, it is doubtful if she will be able to compete in the blue ribbon event abroad. Miss Sherwood said before leaving yesterday that she will go straight to Newcastle, whereas it is the intention of Miss Hollins to do most of her tuning up at Hoylake, the home links of Harold H. Australasia in the Next Olympic Games

A T a recent meeting of the Board of Control of the Amateur Athletic Union of Australia and New Zealand it was the sense of the meeting that Australia ought surely to be represented at the next Olympic games.

The president of the board, Richard Coombes, a veteran promoter and supporter of track and other sports in the Commonwealth and a friend of American athletic leaders, said that the number of athletes in Australia who would have any chance at the Olympic games was very small, but he thought that several representing swimming, lawn tennis and field sports, and also some from New Zealand, could be sent to Antwerp.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD. BALTIMORE, April 17.-Wintry winds and rain combined to make the second and rain combined to make the second day's racing at Havre de Grace about as disagrecable as was possible, but de-spite the unseasonable weather the pub-lle responded to the appeal of the good programme and large crowds came from Philadelphia and Baltimore. Deplorable track conditions and the delay in arrival of several stables from Bowie reduced the card materially, but wonder-ful racing resulted.

Blazes's performance in the Classic Handicap was the particularly bright feature of the sport. The Parr colt, which is highly regarded for the Preak-ness and Kentucky Derby, was making his first public appearance as a three-year-old, and the manner in which he scored proved he will be dangerous in both the classics. Blazes ran his three-quarters in up of no less than four tieing for the 1:15 1-5, unusually fast time considering high scratch prize, each with a total of
